

A guided tour for those who want to see the richly decorated halls with original paintings and stucco decorations and learn something about the history of the building. Soak up the atmosphere of the place where Bedřich Smetana first performed his complete work My Fatherland, where Antonín Dvořák, Zdeněk Fibich and Jan Kubelík walked and also Hector Berlioz, Ferenc Liszt, Pyotr Ilyich Tchaikovsky, Richard Wagner...

During the tour, there will be time for questions and to share your impressions.

The tour lasts approximately 60 minutes. The tour is held in Czech.

Basic entrance fee: 150 CZK.

The tour does not provide complete disability access.